

2023 John Metson Building Hope Award

John Metson was a Board member of Habitat for Humanity Northumberland until his death in 2018. John's commitment to the vision that everyone deserves a decent place to live was inspirational to many in this community and across this country.

The John Metson Building Hope Award recognizes an outstanding volunteer with Habitat Northumberland who inspires others with their leadership and commitment to Habitat's vision.

This award was previously named the Cathy Borowec Building Hope Award after Habitat Northumberland's first Executive Director. After John's passing Cathy graciously agreed to rename the award in recognition of John's dedication and leadership in ensuring people have access to decent, affordable housing.

Do you know a HFHN volunteer who ROCKS?

Nominate them! It's really easy.

Fill out the form on the back explaining why this volunteer should be recognized.

We want you to think of the following criteria when you nominate.

- Demonstrates exceptional commitment, service, creativity, cooperation and leadership to HFHN.
- Empowers others, provides the tools, authority and trust which allow volunteers, volunteer board members and/or staff to do their job and fully employ their individual talents, creativity and initiative.
- Demonstrates excellence by, performing in a superior manner. Continually look for innovative ways to improve operations which produce outstanding results.
- An individual who promotes HFHN vision, encourages awareness of low-income housing issues and educates the community around these issues.

Nominations for the award DUE January 29, 2024.

The presentation of this year's award will take place during our "Hard Hats Off" Recognition Event on February 8, 2024.
